Archie Robards, of Columbia, has broken out in a minister on our seaboard. At the afternoon service, he had but a handlul of hearers, the rest having gone on a season on the wing; little lakes are the stillest, and little hours are the best tilled. Little hooks are the most read, and little songs the dearers to preach it. I find my duties as a minister very much simplified; the times have them as the recommended, and that is money; but one wint to be familiar.
